

Life is short. Choose your career wisely.

Are you a seasoned lawyer with 2-5 years of experience? Are you a lawyer just getting started? Either way Wiedner & McAuliffe is looking to hire St Louis's FINEST Lawyers to join the city's nicest, smartest, and most collaborative team. We're the Midwest's biggest, best-run, most-profitable, most-diverse, and fastest-growing WC and civil litigation firm. Think those are bold claims? We can prove every one.

Want to work at a firm that will bet on your potential and celebrate your success? We're a sophisticated firm that practices cutting-edge worker's compensation and civil litigation, offering leading compensation and benefits.

If you're looking for an exciting opportunity to take your practice to the next level, let us know; we're confident you'll be impressed at what we offer, from five dynamic offices across the region and a hybrid work-from-home option.

Our team works hard, but we also strive every day to create a friendly, supportive, and inclusive culture of excellence. Our clients measure every metric, and we're proud they rate us among the very finest firms for both quality of our work and client service. Where our competitors average a "C" for client experience, our clients tend to rate us an "A." (Sometimes an A+.)

We want to talk. If you meet our high standards for personality and performance at any level, we're always prepared to add more talent to our outstanding roster. Bring your analytical and organizational skills and can-do attitude.
