

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Estate Planning Associate Attorney (Full-time; In-person)

Carmody MacDonald is a progressive and dynamic firm looking for passionate and talented professionals interested in joining us. The spirit of collegiality that characterized our firm's earliest days has been retained and cultivated over the years, making Carmody MacDonald a special place to work.

Being a mid-sized firm with a single office in Clayton, Missouri, Carmody MacDonald offers the friendliness and individual support of a smaller firm alongside big firm experience and resources like advanced technologies, mentoring, and training.

If you are interested in joining a team of like-minded professionals and using your skills to offer the best legal counsel available, please consider the career opportunity below.

Position Description

We are seeking an associate attorney with zero to three years of legal experience to join our Transactional Department with a focus in estate planning. Ideal candidates would have an interest in all facets of estate planning, including wills, trusts, durable powers of attorney, guardianships/conservatorships, as well as estate, probate, and trust administration. The candidate must be able to manage multiple projects in a team setting and provide practical client counseling. All candidates should have strong academic credentials, a willingness to accept responsibility, and share our commitment to client service and professional excellence. Prior work experience or advanced study in estate planning would be beneficial.

We offer competitive compensation, excellent benefits, and the opportunity for professional development.

Qualified candidates should send their cover letter, resume, and law school transcript to recruiting@carmodymacdonald.com.
