

Reichardt Noce & Young LLC is looking for an associate attorney to help represent and defend our law firm's clients. We are a growing civil defense firm in St. Louis County, Missouri, that represents businesses, governmental entities, educational institutions, insurance companies and their insureds in Missouri and Illinois.

What we need: We want a professional who is enthusiastic and wants to learn to take on a wide range of litigation responsibilities. The ideal candidate:

- Has a J.D. and strong academic credentials from an accredited law school;
- Is licensed or willing to become licensed in Missouri (Illinois optional);
- Has strong writing skills;
- Has some experience in civil litigation.

What the associate attorney does: Our vision for this position is someone who with training can learn to tackle a number of litigation responsibilities for our clients, such as:

- Conducting legal research;
- Preparing legal pleadings;
- Drafting legal briefs and memoranda;
- Attending court hearings;
- Helping prepare written discovery;
- Taking and defending depositions;
- Assisting senior attorneys with these tasks as well preparation for trial.

Why join RNY? We are a young and growing law firm that offers a professional and collegial atmosphere where people are allowed to work collaboratively yet independently at the things they do best. We offer:

- A competitive salary based on experience;
- On-the-job training;
- The ability and financial incentive to develop a practice;
- Participation in legal and other industry-related organizations;

- Health care insurance for employees;
- A generous 401(k) package;
- Flexible scheduling that meets the needs of the firm and the employee.

Interested in working with us? Please email our office manager Megan Branham (meb@rnylaw.com) to schedule an interview.
