

Stinson LLP

Tax Credit & Impact Finance Associate Attorney
St. Louis, MO

Stinson LLP is seeking a highly motivated associate attorney with zero to five years of transactional experience and a strong interest in community development transactions utilizing new markets tax credits (NMTCs), historic rehabilitation tax credits (HTCs), and/or renewable energy investment tax credits (RETCs), to join our growing Tax Credit & Impact Finance group.

Experience with NMTCs, HTCs, and RETCs is helpful but not required. Candidates with commercial real estate experience, commercial lending experience, structured finance and/or general federal income tax experience would also be well-suited for this position.

Active license is required. Superior academic performance and excellent writing and analytical skills are required.

Please apply online at <https://www.stinson.com/careers-current-opportunities> and provide a resume, cover letter, unofficial law school transcript, class rank if known, and a writing sample. For questions, contact recruiting@stinson.com.
